Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Governance Policy

Policy Statement

The policy specifies the academic governance arrangements for the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education.

Aims and Objectives

1. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board is responsible for academic policy making, academic management and oversight of best practice in teaching and learning to ensure the higher education objectives of the Health Education and Training Institute are met. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board represents a major forum within Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education for discussion and resolution of academic matters. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board provides advice to the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council in academic matters. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board will:
 - a. ensure best practice and quality in relation to teaching and learning and academic programs;
 - b. provide oversight of compliance obligations in relation to teaching and learning and academic programs;
 - c. develop and provide oversight of Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic policies, quality processes and regulations in relation to higher education programs;
 - d. consider and make decisions on all aspects of the development and accreditation or re-accreditation of higher education courses, the admission of students, teaching, assessment and requirements for graduation, prizes, awards and scholarships;

- e. advise the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council on the academic aspects of the HETI's strategic and operational planning;
- f. ensure a culture of scholarship and academic excellence is developed and nurtured within the HETI's academic staff;
- g. establish such committees or working groups as are required and delegate to these implementation matters. These committees may be standing committees or for specific timeframes and may include (but not be limited to) a Course Advisory Committee, and a Teaching and Learning Committee;
- h. conduct regular reviews of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education programs;
- i. generate reports and make recommendations to the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council.

Overview

2. Subject to any decision of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council, the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board will decide the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education policies and procedures on:
 - a. the monitoring and review of the key parameters and performance indicators for academic planning and academic quality improvement processes;
 - b. courses and units;
 - c. Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic scholarships and prizes;
 - d. Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic awards, including minimum standards and credit points for units;

 - f. student progress;
 - g. student academic discipline;

- h. course and program structures, titles and component names.
3. Subject to any decision of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council, the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board will, at the request of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council or at the discretion of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board, advise the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council and the Health Education and Training Institute Chief Executive on:
 - a. the formulation and regular review of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic plans and related academic development and evaluation strategies;
 - b. reports on the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic activities, including those to outside agencies;
 - c. issues relating to, and affecting, international academic collaboration and partnerships;
 - d. issues relating to external regulatory frameworks of academic standards;
 - e. establishment and disestablishment of academic organisational units, such as schools, research institutes and research centres;
 - f. Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education academic profile;
 - g. development, maintenance and enhancement of high standards in teaching and learning, research, and community and health sector outreach;
 - h. principles and guidelines for the conduct and enhancement of academic activities;
 - i. improvement of the student learning environment and opportunities, including postgraduate supervision;
 - j. development and review of standards for the appointment and promotion of academic staff;
 - k. academic priorities and policies for consideration in Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education planning for academic activities;

- I. development of quality and standards in the links and affiliations with other academic institutions or other organisations; and
- m. development of codes of academic conduct for students and staff of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education.

Roles and Responsibilities

4. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council approves the conferring of the academic awards for all courses offered by Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education at post graduate degree and diploma level on the recommendation of the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board.
5. If it sees fit, the Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Governing Council may delegate authority to issue awards for courses other than those referred to above.

Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board Committees

6. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board may establish such standing and other committees as it sees fit to assist it in the carrying out of its functions. The Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Academic Board must oversee and coordinate advice from its standing committees by:
